

ALAN HOFFMAN

ALAN IS PROUD TO BE EMPLOYED IN THE COMMUNITY. THE MOST REWARDING PART OF HIS DAY IS HELPING SENIOR CUSTOMERS IN THE DOOR AND TO A TABLE WHERE THEY CAN ENJOY THEIR MEAL.

ALAN'S STORY

Since August 2017, three days a week, Alan is working and helping customers by being an important member of the team at his local McDonald's as a Lobby Attendant. Alan always shows up ready to work and takes responsibility to make sure the lobby area looks good and stays clean from top to bottom. His outgoing and friendly personality fit right in with McDonald's philosophy phrase to provide quality, service, cleanliness and value. But the most rewarding part of his day is helping senior customers in the door and to a table where they can enjoy their meal.

Through this job, Alan has become more independent and has improved his work skills by prioritizing essential tasks and providing excellent customer service to all of the guests. Alan is very sociable and knows all of the regulars. He is always ready to start a conversation with a coworker or new customer. Alan is proud to be working in the community and would like to continue at McDonalds because he likes his job very much.

Outside of work, Alan is an avid Cleveland professional sports fan as well as competing in sports for the Metzenbaum Center's Special Olympics teams. He loves group gatherings and enjoys having friends over for dinner or talking on the phone. Alan really loves music and regularly enjoys live music on Saturday nights at Coffee Corners in Burton. When he is not on the go, Alan can be found spending time with his girlfriend, listening to Elvis Presley, watching movies or reading.
